The Working of the Working Committee

06th December 2014
Human life is moved by two equally powerful impulses, one of individualistic self-assertion, the other of collective self assertion; it works by strife, but also by mutual assistance and united effort: it uses two diverse convergent forms of action, two motives which seem to be contradictory but are in fact always coexistent, competitive endeavour and cooperative endeavour.
The right organisation of social life on a basis of equality and comradeship ought to give each man his proper place in society, his full training and development for the common ends, his due share of work, leisure and reward, the right value of his life in relation to the collective being, society.

What political organisation do you want for Auroville?

“An amusing definition occurs to me: a divine anarchy. But the world will not understand. Men must become conscious of their psychic being and organise themselves spontaneously, without fixed rules and laws—that is the ideal.

For this one must be in contact with one’s psychic being, one must be guided by it and the ego’s authority and influence must disappear.”
(In response to a question regarding spontaneity vis-à-vis organisation in work:)

“Spontaneous work can be done only by a man of genius.

Is there anyone claiming to be a genius?...”

Q: Does the construction of Auroville require a working-method, organisation and co-ordination?

“Discipline is necessary for life. To live, the body itself is subject in all its functions to a rigorous discipline. Any relaxation of this discipline causes illness.”

Q: What should be the nature of this organisation, in the present and in the future?

“Organisation is a discipline of action, but for Auroville, we aspire to go beyond arbitrary and artificial organisations. We want an organisation which is the expression of a higher consciousness working to manifest the truth of the future.”
The Mother on the Organisation of Auroville

Q: Until this group consciousness appears, and until we can work collectively in the true and right way, what should we do?

A hierarchical organisation grouped around the most enlightened centre and obeying a collective discipline.

Q: Has the time come to wish for, to set up, to try for a general organisation, or should one wait for the right attitude and men?

An organisation is needed for the work to be done - but the organisation itself must be flexible and progressive.
Manifesting the dream. . . .

You say that Auroville is a dream.

Yes, it is a “dream” of the Lord and generally these “dreams” turn out to be true - much more true than the human so-called realities!
