Some think it presumption to believe in a special Providence or to look upon oneself as an instrument in the hands of God, but I find that every man has a special.

Providence and I see that God uses the mattock of the labourer and babbles in the mouth of a little child Providence is not only that which saves me from the shipwreck in which everybody else has foundered Providence is also that which while all others are saved snatches away my last plank of safety and drowns me in the solitary ocean.

The delight of victory is sometimes less than the attraction of struggle and suffering; nevertheless the laurel and not the cross should be the aim of the conquering human soul.

Souls that do not aspire are God’s failures; but Nature is pleased and loves to multiply them because they assure her of stability and prolong her empire.

Those who are poor, ignorant, ill-born or ill-bred are not the common herd; the common herd are all who are satisfied with pettiness and an average humanity.

Help men, but do not pauperise them of their energy; lead and instruct men, but see that their initiative and originality remain intact; take others into thyself, but give them in return the full godhead of their nature. He who can do this is the leader and the guru.

God has made the world a field of battle and filled it with the trampling of combatants and the cries of a great wrestle and struggle. Would you filch His peace without paying the price He has fixed for it?

Distrust a perfect-seeming success, but when having succeeded thou findest still much to do, rejoice and go forward; for the labour is long before the real perfection.

There is no more benumbing error than to mistake a stage for the goal or to linger too long in a resting place.”

All that Sri Aurobindo says here is aimed at fighting against human nature with its inertia, its heaviness, laziness, easy satisfactions, hostility to all effort. How many times in life does one meet people who become pacifists because they are afraid to fight, who long for rest before they have earned it, who are satisfied with a little progress and in their imagination and desires make it into a marvellous realisation so as to justify their stopping half-way.

In ordinary life, already, this happens so much. Indeed, this is the bourgeois ideal, which has deadened mankind and made man into what he is now: “Work while you are young, accumulate wealth, honour, position; be provident, have a little foresight, put something by, lay up a capital, become an official — so that later when you are forty you “can sit down”, enjoy your income and later your pension and, as they say, enjoy a well-earned rest.” — To sit down, to stop on the way, not to move forward, to go to sleep, to go downhill towards the grave before one’s time, cease to live the purpose of life — to sit down!

The minute one stops going forward, one falls back. The moment one is satisfied and no longer aspires, one begins to die. Life is movement, it is effort, it is a march forward, the scaling of a mountain, the climb towards new revelations, towards future realisations. Nothing is more dangerous than wanting to rest. It is in action, in effort, in the march forward that repose must be found, the true repose of complete trust in the divine Grace, of the absence of desires, of victory over egoism.

True repose comes from the widening, the universalisation of the consciousness. Become as vast as the world and you will always be at rest. In the thick of action, in the very midst of the battle, the effort, you will know the repose of infinity and eternity.

When the psychic being gets in front and becomes master, there comes in a fundamentally smooth action and although there are difficulties and undulations of movement, these are no longer of an abrupt or dramatic character.

Forest group meeting minutes 7.10.16 @ Siddhartha Forest

Present: Thanajayan, D. Segar, Vengadesh, Rita, Jan, Satyaaji, Eric, Agnes, Jessamijn, V. Boobalan, V. Balu, Enea, Achilles, Hans, Krista Slavik, Kannyappan, Clapton, David/Aurodam, Julia, Dominik, Glenn (chairperson + final notes), Rishi, Jean II Banyan, Christoph, Vinny, Kumar, Balu, Jaap, Madda, Nathalie, Shivaraj, B. Archana, Jean-Marie, Tine, Jasmin, Natasha/Everygreen, Fabian

1. Dana Forest - Those who were recently at Dana commended Patrick’s work on creating a small beautiful TDEF forest area, Patrick’s dedication was acknowledged. Marie-Angèle has expressed the will to continue this work. The obvious support came from the group for this and suggested that in a few months the official logistics can be put into place.

2. Silence - Hans expressed through a member that he needed some help and maybe a co-steward for Silence due to his present health issue. The group felt that in his absence no decision could be made and Enea was nominated to contact him to find out what was really required.

3. Firewood - Due to rising labour costs the AV Bakery and Visitors Centre firewood price was increased to Rs 3,500 per ton. Other units with special requirements to arrange their prices with the steward supplying.

4. Land purchase - Adjacent to Fertile Field, a new piece of land has been purchased by the Land board. Size 2.30 acres, survey # MA 305/1. Border stones have been placed. As this is an extension to the Fertile forest area, the meeting allocated the stewardship to Jan. He will continue his work in protecting and developing this forest area. To be approved of by the Green group and the FAMC.

5. Land reallocation - Rishi requests that the Land Board clarify the boundaries of MA293/4 (presently stewarded by LB) by sending a team of their workers to clear the boundaries so that the surveyors are able make measurements and put in the corner stones. Once the boundaries are clear, Rishi is willing to take on the stewardship and the reforestation of the plot, which will be possible only once a fence is erected.

6. Allocation of land stewardship - The FAMC has requested details of the Forest Group land allocation process. It was stated that most of the land allocations happen by unanimous decision in the Forest Group meeting forum as the large proportion of land to be allocated are small plots touching or adjacent to existing stewarded areas. When larger plots of land are to be allocated normally proposals are made and studied by the group and the FAMC, including neighboring stewards, to come up with the most appropriate land use and steward. Since each plot of land and circumstance is different this process is implemented on an ad hoc basis. Some members aired frustration at the last large land stewardship allocation which took place, as a long all inclusive systematic process took place only to be overruled by the FAMC by placing someone as steward they preferred.

7. Everygreen - Natasha announced that after working hard with their neighbouring farm steward they are not able to work out a solution for Gowri’s access to develop a new plot of land.

8. Finances - Financing the work of protecting and developing the forest areas is becoming ever more difficult and managing with what funds we receive from the city services is becoming more challenging. In this light it was suggested that again all members work with special funds or watchman wage support, to reflect if they really need what they receive and to consider freeing off some funds for more needy stewardship areas.

9. Maintenance - Satyaji (Meadow) requested 1/2 forest maintenance to work in Meadow in the light of Didier (Meadow steward) reducing his full maintenance to half. As the FG has a waiting list for maintenances and that the FG accountant was not present and had discussed this change already no decision could be reached. Satyaji to follow up with Diego and that it be brought to the meeting again.

10. Northern Greenbelt - Segar, Needal forest, who has recently taken responsibility for some plots (SW of Mathur panchayat, to the west of Fertile Field and to the south of Kamatura) requested a watchman budget to help get work started on these plots. Due to the importance of developing this area a budget was granted for 6 months and then to be reviewed.

11. International Zone - David (Aurodam) announced that he is working together with Clapton to plant trees in the African Pavilion, international zone and Maheshwari Park and in general Clapton is helping with his land stewardship work.

12. Guesthouses - It was announced that income from guesthouses and home stays should now appear in the monthly Forest Group account form.

13. Soil and Water conservation - Balu from Azhagau bhoomi requested funds for JCB work to re-route a road which passes through the middle of the land and move it along the perimeter, as well as to repair existing field bunds and add some contour bunds. Infinity also requested some earthwork and a discussion followed about the need for serious work to be implemented at the top of the nine palms area to avoid very serious erosion and water run-off. In the absence of the nine palms steward it was agreed to have the next Field group meeting at 9 Palms on Friday 14th of October, 3.30 pm to discuss this further and decide what work can be implemented this monsoon season.

14. Greenbelt plan - There has been a request from RAS for feedback on the Greenbelt master plan prepared by David Stein, as the TDC would like to ratify the plan at an R.A. level. The forest group feels that in its present form it would not agree to this ratification and that it needs more detailed work input. More precise feedback will be collected and communicated.

A big thanks to Boobalan and Jean Marie for hosting the meeting and inviting us to this beautiful forest space.

Next meeting: 4th November - location to be confirmed.

Housing Service: The housing crisis is not over yet

Dear Community,

The housing wants to share with you that the housing crisis is not over yet.

Following is a picture of our present community reality:
- Persons on the Waiting list for housing (with very little or no funds): 84
- Young Aurovilians on the list for housing: 52
- Very urgent cases at least: 10
- Auroville can accommodate 65 Newcomers however at present: 47 Aurovilians are occupying a Newcomer house (because of no alternative). About 12 Newcomers (at the end of their NC period) are not able to move for at least 2 years as their new house is not ready yet. That leaves 59 units occupied.
- 150 Newcomers have applied already and we have only places for another max 20. We do not know where to place the rest.

A few more figures:
- Some houses under-used as the steward is out of station but does not allow house-sitting at least: 12.
- The houses lost because of Sea erosion in Waves, Gokulam, Repos, 5 housing units and 5 guest units.
- Houses given in Sri Ma for a guest house: 6 (FAMC decision)
- Please note that all houses without stewardship, because of the steward having left, are automatically in care of the Housing service, who will decide what the next steward will be - in most cases in coordination with the community, unless there is an absolute emergency. In emergency situation the HS can decide to allocate the unit.

Some good news as well:
- The Government of India has granted 1 crore to build 14 single/couple and 6 family houses near Reve (Maison des Jeunes model) - A project for Young Aurovilians and Newcomers, it will take about a year time to construct.
- The GOI also gives grants for Humanscape (Housing service project holder) for 35 beds, that will be ready in September next year. This will also be for Young Aurovilians and Newcomers.

So the Housing Service is moving. We are grateful for this help from the Government of India and will request the TDC for more site permissions and projects (sustainable, affordable).
So good hopes for the future but at present, we are still very short on supplying the need of the low or no budget Aurovilians.

Activity update on restructuring TDC & Participatory planning

Since the General Meeting of 06 September 2016, the Auroville Council has appointed a sub group to coordinate & formulate a draft for the Terms of Reference (TOR) that will be a guideline for collaborative work of the new TDC. As presented at the GM, the participatory process will continue through sounding board work sessions and community information sessions. Currently the subgroup consists of Suhasini, Pashi, Shama, Sauro, Lyle, Alain Bernard & Martin Littlewood.

To have a look again at the process, see www.auroville.org.in/article/58847 for the PPT presentation of the 6th September 2016 GM.

The draft TOR will be presented in a General Meeting (GM) for community feedback. On receiving feedback, it will be processed and integrated within a final document by the subgroup, eventually going for ratification, through a Residence Assembly Decision Making process in February 2017.
At this point the work of the sub group will come to a closure. The Auroville Council, in collaboration with the Working Committee, Study group, Koodam and the RAS will also design a participatory selection process to appoint the new TDC members and the aim is to have a new team in office by end of March.

The Auroville Council Facilitator is Marc and the sub group coordinators are: Shama, Elvira and Mamata

ANNOUNCEMENTS

An Announcement from the BCC

Dear Members of the Community, Executives and Unit Holders:
As you know, we, the City Services, very much depend upon the support from units and activities to maintain basic community services such as the farms, forests, roads, schools, health, security, and others as well as maintenance of Aurovilians and children.

In accordance with the ABC Contribution Policy units are expected to minimally contribute 33% of profit before contributions to City Services.

We had reported to the community that the pending contribution from various units from time period between 2010 to 2015 collectively amounted to Rs.1.2 Cr, an amount that the City Service could certainly use to somewhat ease the financial bottleneck it is currently experiencing.

The BCC has taken great effort to follow up with each of these units that have pending contributions - requesting them to clear their arrears by 31 March 2016. Apart from perusing the matter sometime in person through dialogue, the City Services has sent emails on 26 February 2016 requesting these units to clear their dues. The BCC has also followed up with written reminders on 16 March 2016 and on 19 April 2016.

While some units immediately responded and have cleared their dues or set up a payment plan with the BCC coordinator - many did not even acknowledge receipt. BCC in one of the correspondences had informed them that no response will be assumed as agreement with the amount pending to the City Services.

To facilitate the process of clearing pending dues and not having them accumulated over the years, BCC will now apply contribution received from an unit first towards any pending arrears from the previous years (e.g. between 2010 to 2015).

Once that is cleared the remaining amount will be applied towards the contribution for the last financial year (i.e. for now it will be for 2015-16).

If you have any specific question or comments please write to: bccoffice@auroville.org.in or contact the BCC Coordinator, Ursula at the Financial Service.

Thanking you, Sincerely,

BCC

Communication update on the Entry secretariat feedback process

Dear Community members,
We thank all the 97 Residents who gave feedback on the members of the new Entry Service secretariat.

The AVC and WCom have been processing and analysing the feedback with care and sincerity. We received diverse feedback, from full support to certain concerns, mainly regarding the relation between members of the new Entry Secretariat. At the end of this process, it was felt that there was no need for immediate intervention. Nevertheless, the AVCouncil takes the concerns from the community very seriously and will follow the 3 month trial period closely and will make the final announcement of the team's membership at end of the trial period in December. We are of course open to receiving more feedback from the community during this time.
Considering that a new Policy is being implemented and the new team is bringing a lot of positive dynamism and during these 3 months, the AVCouncil, through its subgroup, will closely work with the new team.

Thanks again for your participation,
The AVCouncil & the Working Committee

L’avenir d’Auroville / TDC - Site and Building Applications feedback - 22nd Oct 2016

The following Site and Building Applications (SA and BA) are announced for feedback from the community for a period of two weeks from the date of publication.

The announcement is made for feedback only and does not mean that the project has final approval. The final approval is given when L’avenir d’Auroville / TDC issues a NOC (No Objection Certificate). This happens once the feedback period is over, the feedback has been evaluated, a final decision by TDC has been reached and the necessary financial formalities have been completed. It is only after issuing a final building permission that fencing, building or any other activity on the site can start.

It has to be noted that site permission is given to reserve the site for a maximum period of two years in order to prepare a project proposal. It does not give any right to fence and clear the site unless, for practical reasons, there is a special permission of the TDC.

INDIVIDUAL PROJECTS

SITE APPLICATIONS

1. Michael & Sindhuja, Shared Office on plot no. IR 416/4, IR 416/5 (between Certitude Road and Humility for an area of approx. 700 sq.m.

Project write up given by the project holder:

- Project Title: Shared Offices
- Proposed Site Location: IR416/4, IR416/5 - along Certitude Road
- Project Holder: Michael G and Sindhuja
- Architect: Imago Auroville
- Contact Persons: Michael - 9047725507 / imagoauroville.org.in

Description:

- Plot No: IR416/4, IR416/5
- Total Area of the project: footprint approx. 300sqm
- Build up Area: approx. 700sqm
- Target Group: Auroville Services and Units in need of an office space

Background: Currently Auroville’s numerous small scale activities and smaller units operate from their executives’ home or from a smaller office space in their respective residential community. With a unit growing the traffic load of these residential communities increases. Limited spaces - at home or in a converted store room - makes the growth of a unit difficult. We believe that Auroville is currently short of available office spaces. And with units and services that have a similar modus operandi, sharing spaces allows shared facilities and economical development of office spaces.

Triggers: Auroville, currently has not sufficient office spaces for Auroville units. Even services in Auroville struggle to find a suitable space, not to mention young people starting up.

Goals/Objectives: As we foresee Auroville growing in an accelerated fashion, we believe that the need for office and workshop spaces will increase along with it. The continuous focus of our city’s development currently lies on housing, which, combining all ongoing projects in Auroville, we believe will address the needs quite well in the near future. We simply consider that with an increased population, other facilities will be needed as well - office spaces being just one of many.

We intend to create a space for multiple units/services to find a home. Depending on needs and resources these offices shall vary in sizes, but share facilities such as conference space, reception desk, repro room, pantry and toilet.

The initiating of this project allows us to start planning the detailed project and let it unfold based on actual site parameters, climactic context, future developments, possibly interested services/units etc.

2. SAIIER, Mitra II, along the Crown Road, opposite the Solar Kitchen (between the round-about to its right and the future Line Of Force) on plot no IR 218/1A for an area of max. 3500sqm

Project write up given by the project holder:

- Project Title: MITRA II
- Proposed Site Location: along the Crown Road, opposite the Solar Kitchen (between the round-about to its right and the future Line Of Force)
- Project Holder: SAIIER
- Architect: architectural selection process
- Contact Persons: Michael G - sailer-construction@auroville.org.in

Description:

- Plot No: IR 218/1A
- Total Area of the project: to be given by L’avenir
- Built-up Area: max. 3500sqm
- Target Group: Volunteers, Interns (same as current Mitra user group)

Background: The Mitra youth hostel, as it is in its current capacity, cannot accommodate all young volunteers and interns of Auroville. Furthermore, the Residential Zone, for many people, is a sub-optimal location to host the dynamic life style of these young people. Therefore, SAIIER is planning to build a new youth hostel in a more appropriate location.

Further details will be published shortly, along with a detailed brief and call for architects.

Triggers: SAIIER held a process mid-2015 that successfully engaged architects to present their proposals for a new complex of Staff Quarters for SAIIER. As the planned Mitra 2 facility is not only a large scale project, but will be in a fantastic location to showcase Auroville’s architecture, the process seeks to engage as many Auroville architects as possible.

Goals/Objectives: A detailed brief and call for architects will be published as soon as SAIIER, in close collaboration with TDC, has finalised the parameters for this project.

COLLECTIVE PROJECTS

SITE APPLICATIONS: No new SA

BUILDING APPLICATIONS: No new BA

BUILDING APPLICATIONS

1. SAIIER Staff Quarters - Chali, on plot no. BO 12/1 and BO 12/2 for total build up area of approx. 400 Sq.m. for 48 persons.

Project write up given by the project holder:

- Project Title: Staff Quarters Phase II-IV
- Proposed Site Location: BO 12/1 and BO 12/2 - next to Dehashakti
- Project Holder: SAIIER - Chali
- Architect: Imago Auroville
- Contact Persons: Chali (saier-chali@auroville.org.in)

Description

- Plot No: BO 12/1 and BO 12/2
- Total Area of the project:
- Allocated site 6233 sqm
- Overall development 1725sqm (incl. parking, storeroom etc.)
- Build up Area: approx. 400sqm each phase

Target Group: members of SAIIER

Background: As SAIIER in its support of the never ending education of Auroville is continuously growing, it has an urgent need to house its members. The SAIIER quarters will be given free of cost to SAIIER related personal, such as members of SAIIER, teacher and other individuals involved in Auroville’s thriving education.

Triggers: SAIIER held a selection process mid 2015 in which this project was one out of two proposals selected for execution. As phase one is currently at its finishing stage, the next phases shall follow closely to reduce the overall time and stress for the neighbors.

Goals/Objectives: Being settled in the cultural zone, the SAIIER quarters allow its inhabitants to be part of the ongoing cultural exchange and nearby the supported institutions, becoming an integral part of the day-to-day challenges and activities.

The livable space promotes a simplistic life style and spaces are designed in a clean, clear, minimal language. The buildings materials are chosen to create a harmonic array of natural colors, textures and grounding. Maximized natural light and natural ventilation reduces the need for artificial interventions in the life of the inhabitants and large openings interacting with the surrounding greenery enhance the overall well-being. Semi-private as well as public veranda spaces are designed to enhance interactions and provide buffers for internal privacy. Extensive landscape increases privacy between the buildings and acts as a natural noise buffer. 60% of green cover allows for extensive landscaping enhancing biodiversity.

For additional information, please write to avenir@auroville.org.in, call 2622-170 or come directly to L’avenir d’Auroville/TDC office in the Town Hall. For more information on the location of the plots mentioned above, you can find this same announcement with map(s) on the Auroonet page of L’avenir d’Auroville/TDC.

PLEASE NOTE:
From now on, the announced Friends of Auroville, Relatives/Partners, Associates and Youth of Auroville Turning 18 will be considered as ‘confirmed’ if there is no constructive feedback within two weeks. Their names will not be published again as ‘confirmed’. Only rescinded cases will be announced.

Our team is happy to announce the following persons as Aurovilians, Newcomers and Friends of Auroville. We will wait two weeks for Newcomers and one month for Aurovilians from this publication for your feedback before confirming.

FOR YOUR INFORMATION

Solitude Organic Farm Café

Every day, there is such an enormous delight harvesting such a delicious variety of herbs, spinaches, weeds, flowers, roots, fruits and vegetables that along with our peanuts, millets and sometimes our rice and dhals, is the basis of the food we serve at Solitude Organic Farm café.

Recently to add to our existing Daily Thali we have added to our menu a number of new dishes that make use of these beautiful gifts from our Mother Nature.

Taboula, Raw pad thai, raw vegan spaghetti with a creamy pesto sauce, spring roll, farm salad and spinach vegan chesse dosa. All the dishes come with tapioca or plantain chips or a dosai, a vadai and chutney etc.

Our deep aim is to share with our community the value of local food: nutritionally, socially, culturally, ecologically and economically.

Industrialised agriculture has defined the nutritional profile of our society. In turn this has had a major impact on our health both physically, socially and culturally. All the foods we offer are simple and straightforward to grow. They all have wonderful properties according to Ayurveda and also unique tastes that reflect their nutritional superiority. We are currently working on a website that teaches all the recipes we know with all the different local foods available (so far we have over 90 growing at Solitude). By bringing community together over local food, we can revalue these foods. Many of them you won’t find in shops but they have a profound value to us especially on a nutritional level. Fukuoka said to me when I met him, that only the fool will understand natural farming but I ask myself, if we don’t educate and inform ourselves about the bounty that we have all around us, who is the fool? After all this land is our Mother. Gaia, Patchi Amma, Bhoomi Dev, there are many names. Every single civilisation that has emerged on this planet has had a deep and dynamic relationship with where its food comes from. By eating this type of food and recognising that it can be the basis of our diet here in Auroville I would go so far as to say that embracing this food in whichever way we can is an act of devotion in itself! Anyway, forgive my digressions; if people come and eat at Solitude we are happy. We have a lunch scheme and beautiful vegan ice creams as well as sugar free cakes, smoothies and so much more! If we can help people start cooking this food at home we are also happy. If we can help cafes like the visitor’s centre, now serving their own tapioca, we are happy. Mother wants us to be happy. By accepting her gifts it is a beautiful and conscious way to stop polluting our planet and ourselves and create the new currency that maybe she was alluding to, the currency of well-being.

With all my heart,
Krishna

GREEN MATTERS

Rwanda Climate Change Summit aims at replacing cooling gases

Almost 200 countries have reached a deal to phase out gases that contribute to global warming. HFCs, or hydrofluorocarbons, are used world-wide in fridges, air conditioning and aerosols (spray bottles).

This recent climate summit in Rwanda (central-eastern Africa) was a follow-up of the Paris Climate Change agreement signed by over 150 countries last December. It was also a continuation and amendment of the work of the so-called Montreal Protocol, a treaty designed thirty years ago to protect the environment from harmful substances, following the discovery of a large ozone hole over Antarctica. Its main aim was to end the use of ozone-depleting CFCs (chlorofluorocarbons), also known as Freon (or R-12), which were replaced with HFCs. Later it was found out that HFCs were also problematic as they in turn contribute to global warming by trapping heat radiating off the Earth. Over 100 fluorinated gases have been eliminated in 30-year history of the Montreal Protocol.

Delegates in Rwanda accepted that wealthier countries will cut back their use of HFCs starting from 2019. Some developing countries like China and those in Latin America will follow suit in 2024. During tough negotiations, India has been under the greatest pressure to sign a deal. Its government wants developing nations to be allowed till 2026 to phase out HFC emissions. The Indian environment minister Anil Daves argues that his country cannot afford the change due to ‘stagnating development’, and will therefore phase it out only in 2032 (!). Some observers question the concessions made, and believe that this will prevent the target of cutting global warming by 0.5 degrees from being reached. Of course, it makes perfect sense that countries and people who have historically not contributed to the problem shouldn’t have to beg and fight for assistance from industrialised nations in developing and introducing green technologies!

If the new agreement is implemented in full, it will make a substantial difference, reducing the use of HFCs by 85% by 2045, or by another estimate, averting carbon dioxide in the atmosphere by 70 billion tons of CO₂ - or India’s entire emissions by 2050.

One thing is clear - all countries have to take serious steps and assume their share of responsibility in shifting to a global low-carbon economy, in the effort to mitigate a run-away climate change that is profoundly changing our planet’s condition. This means leaving coal and oil in the ground and instead promoting sustainable, renewable energy on a massive scale. It also means protecting the world’s most vulnerable people and countries (such as the small island nations) from the damages of extreme weather and the rising of sea levels. It means working on all kinds of ‘Adaptations’, such as for instance growing food at higher temperatures and creating drought-resistant cultivars, protecting the dwindling fresh water resources, and much more. All this requires means and measures that go beyond a single country - especially a poor one - can do on its own. What is needed is an increasing international collaboration and a shift from an economy aimed at competition and exploitation to one based on solidarity and a harmonious interdependence. It looks like the global environmental crisis may be humanity’s last and best chance, if we want to survive, to embrace the next evolutionary step, and shift from thinking and acting in division to mutual help and oneness!

Can we get fridges and A/C with eco-friendly coolants?

There are many chemicals used as refrigerants - at least 300! - and they are generally called R- for Refrigerant) followed by a number. The range of CFS, HCFCs and HFCs (from more to somewhat less harmful) can be confusing, and vendors in appliance shops mostly don’t know which gas a fridge or air conditioner uses. Many fridges are advertised as ‘eco-friendly’ but it isn’t always easy to get more detailed information (the same applies to so-called inverter motors). Asking for the technical specifications sheet should provide the information. The consumer information website Bijlibachao has an excellent, user-friendly page with simple explanations and evaluations.

According to this handy site, the most commonly used refrigerant in India is currently still the ozone-depleting HCFC-22 (R-22). In air conditioners, about a quarter use HFCs (somewhat less harmful but still contributing to global warming). Other commonly used coolants are HFCs: R-134A in refrigerators; R-410A and R-32 in air conditioners. The most environment-friendly refrigerants that are available in Indian market currently are called “R-290” and “R-600A”. They are HC or hydrocarbons, and their chemical names are Propane for R-290 and Iso-Butane for R-600A. They have no ozone depletion potential and are by far the lowest in terms of global warming potential. Although these gases are highly flammable, manufacturers claim that the appliances using them are totally safe. ‘In fact, most fridges in the Indian market are now on R-600A and there are no reported accidents; so we can comfortably believe that they are safe.’

The site concludes: “If you are someone who cares about energy efficiency and global warming, go for an Air Conditioner with R-290 or a Refrigerator with R-600A. The more you opt for it, the more the manufacturers will start using them in their appliances. Hopefully, with stringent standards and better advancements in technology, we will be able to see better refrigerants in future.”

For interest’s sake, on the horizon is a radically different refrigeration technology which use magnetism and a water coolant instead of a refrigerant gas, while consuming minimal energy. The first commercial magnetic cooling system is presently in testing phase and is expected to be commercially available in not-too-distant future.

not to cause a glut in the market, this season, we are flooded with cucumbers. We get about 400 kg each week from various farms. Solar Kitchen and PTDC are our biggest consumers (thank you folks), and we have also contacted some other outlets and eateries. But, what we would like to encourage is community-supported agriculture, and you can make a difference: Next time, you eat a salad with cucumber at an Auroville outlet, ask them, “is this from AV?”.

It is organic, you don’t need to peel the cucumber first.

If you primarily eat at home, have you ever tried cucumber soup? It is surprisingly tasty, and the best part is of course, as it is organic, you don’t need to peel the cucumber first.

Partly new, partly old news: We are sure all of you have tried sesame and gomasio from AV farms. But did you know that the ground black sesame served at Solar Kitchen these days is also from our farms? Yes, it has a stronger taste, for in our weather conditions with just a bit of excess humidity, the sesame, while in the field itself, acquires a strong taste. Nevertheless, it is equally healthy. And what’s new is cold-pressed sesame oil from Siddhartha and Kalpavruksha farms. Cold-pressed oils are the healthiest, for commercial, standard or heat-pressed oils are processed with chemicals. So do try our sesame oil as our cooking medium, and if you like it, make the switch to a healthier option.

New and fresh: Gluten-free millet crackers from Auroville bakery made with locally grown millets. You will find them in PTDC, and we will see if we can stock them in Foodlink soon.

And finally our newest news: Foodlink (thanks to Buddha Garden folks) is now selling organic cashews, sourced from selected Auroville communities, at highly competitive prices. Look out for the Foodlink label.

In community, Sumathi and Bindu (for the FL team)

Pumphouse residents need your collaboration

An interesting early history of the Pumphouse: Navajata asked Mother to locate a place to put a bore well for a water supply to the Center. She placed a pin in a map and asked Nava to walk north until he felt light-headed. A Pumphouse and a small hut were built. Arindam came to live there briefly in late 68. Francis and I lived there the first part of 69 - Francis (living in Certitude) built a large round open hut. Later in ’69 Arindam returned from the States and claimed the property. Mother gave it the name “Arindam” - but everyone else continued to call it the Pumphouse [How the Pumphouse community started, written by Constance, USA]

Last thirty years of history:
When Nagappan, Grace’ husband, who worked in 1983 at the Matrimandir, approached in 1986 the Matrimandir management to have a house in the Pumphouse area, they approved it in 1987, and then we both started living there. That time nobody said that it was a temporary housing/community.

When we heard in 1998 that the crown road crosses into the Pumphouse we understood that the community was temporary, but we didn’t get any official note from any Working Group, also we saw that Roger’s plan (approved by RA in 1995) shows the crown road outside of the Pumphouse community.

Meeting with several working groups:
We received so many feedbacks from the community: 1) “Why does the Pumphouse community object to the Youth Hive project?” 2) “Why can’t the Pumphouse residents take up this project?” We are not objecting to the project only to the process.

At the July 10th, 2016, meeting with Koodam, Architects, Youth Hive, TDC we explained our situation and were asked to take a decision. The next day we (residents) discussed among ourselves and took the decision to avoid the pollution, noise, parties, breaking The Mother’s rules - which happened in similar cases previously; the big building (150 beds) 14 meters away from us, the residents, no access to the residents - the approach was not correct, without consulting the neighbours harmoniously - how can then one guarantee or expect harmony to come in the future in that place? Not only harmony with the neighbours but also with the neighbouring villages close to the Pumphouse community. The approach of the project holder or the architects challenging the residents of the Pumphouse can’t be accepted. The present peaceful atmosphere may not exist anymore in that place and also probably not with the neighbouring villages. On 11th July 2016 itself all of the above mentioned groups agreed with our decision.

Concerns raised by Pump House Residents:
The gathered Pumphouse residents expressed deep dissatisfaction that they were ignored in the application and granting of the project’s Non-Objection Certificate (NOC). They stated that they were never approached directly regarding the project and learned about the plans via community forums. They stated that they would have liked more respect and inclusion in advance and cited Meenaskhi’s proceedings regarding the nearby Tamil Heritage Centre application as a good example of correct processes in this circumstance.

a) We are the stewards of the place, but the NOC was given to the project holder without our consent. The project holder, the architect, L’Avenir, TDC also started the process without involving us.

b) As far we know TDC/L’Avenir usually asks the permission from the neighbours before starting the process. Here in our case it has not happened.

c) The proposed Site Location announced in the N&N: International Zone, along the Crown Road, opposite Unity Pavilion/New Language Lab does not mention our community name “Pumphouse”.

d) The residents (every one) don’t keep in their mind their plot number. Half of the residents don’t even know the plot number of their community. When a person is going to build a new house /house exchange/house transfer, they have to inform/ get approval from the whole community members who are living there before starting the process. Also, if a community member wants to start any new house/project, he/ she must get the approval from the other community members before he/ she starts the project. This is the normal procedure being followed in Auroville. But in our case, the above said procedure was not followed.

Yet this has not ended there and we are disappointed. Koodam and Youth Link project holders ITDC, wrote in the email that there is a plan B and that they were going to proceed with that only.

This decision has given TDC a chance to rectify their mistake. It has set a good example for the other groups. Henceforth groups in the future will come forward to accept their mistakes and do the needful to rectify them with good spirit.

Nagappan’s father Dhanapalam showed his appreciation for Auroville by donating his only acre of land to AV (Reve community). In the early days our pocket money was Rs 20 only, with that we couldn’t develop much in the community and still now we are working in Service places. For 30 years now we have worked physically on this land surrounded by other AV lands, and as community members we stopped encroachments and discussed or quarreled with Panchayat leaders and neighbouring landowners. Is all this forgotten now? The villagers are still respecting us because whenever they are in difficulty we are ready to help.

We, the Pumphouse residents, therefore want to discuss with the community at large this ambiguous and unsatisfying situation and restore the peaceful atmosphere in the Pumphouse community.

Thanking you,
Lakshmi, Meena, Induja, Grace, Nagappan, Arunkumar, Prachita

Clarification from the International Zone Coordination Team regarding the Hive Project

The International Zone Coordination Team (IZCT) comprises residents of the community who believe passionately in the development of the International Zone according to the vision of the Mother. This zone is one of the four to which She gave great importance, as She believed that the work done there would play a significant role in bringing about harmony between nations and the realisation of human unity. The zone is as yet, however little developed, and has been largely neglected by Aurovilians.

In recent years however, an enthusiastic team has come together with a strong aspiration to promote and encourage development of the zone, as well as to fundraise for projects. We have been involved in projects such as the building of temporary pavilions (Africa and France so far, but the temporary European House will soon follow), as well as the development of much needed infrastructure, such as water and roads, as well as habitat projects. We have also given encouragement to pavilion groups such as Russia, and Korea, who wish to develop permanent pavilions. We have also taken an interest in service projects which are planned to be along the Crown Road, such as student/volunteer accommodation, offices and international restaurants. We were therefore particularly enthusiastic when Youthlink presented their Hive project to us, and gave the group our help and encouragement.

When L’avenir d’Auroville granted site permission to the land near Pumphouse for the Hive project, we believed, as they did, that it is an ideal location, as the land is unoccupied and in an optimal location next to the future Crown Road. We agreed with L’avenir that it appeared to be far enough from existing residents not to cause difficulties. So we were surprised when, on talking to the Pumphouse residents they expressed their strong opposition to the siting of the project. Both Pumphouse residents and members of the Hive team have joined our meetings and expressed their views, and we have done our best to understand everyone’s concerns.

Members of the IZCT have been in close contact with the Pumphouse residents since the time of the project application to L’Avenir, keeping them informed and inviting them to our meetings. In our talks with the residents - both in our meetings and in private conversations - we have come to understand their concerns. However, we believe that the Hive project as now presented (amended to address their concerns), does not present a significant impact on the residents’ lives. Furthermore, we believe strongly that the development of the City, and in particular the International Zone needs to move forward with some urgency, and we encourage those living in these areas to embrace the new developments and support this work towards manifesting the Mother’s vision.

THE PATH OF SILK at Centre D’art - Citadines

We are always at the right time at the right moment, but sometimes this perception gets even more accentuated as we perceived what we call “the moment of grace”.

With “The Path of Silk” exhibit from Maria Grazia the opened up in “Le Centre d’Art “ in Citadines on the 15th of October, you will visit a dance of silk and spirit all the way from the country of Dante to Mother India.

Maria Grazia’s journey into the spirit started in her home country, Italy, where she was working in an “Avant Garde” theatre exploring a very specific ancient spiritual technique called “Theater of Sources” inspired by Jerzy Grotowsky, a Polish innovative theatre director, who sought to explore new forms of theatrical expression without employing the spoken word and using the actor’s own self as the substance of performance.

From theatre she moved to the Sri Aurobindo Centre in Milan where Maria Grazia met a man called Arka, a name given to him by the Mother. There she got “the call” to go to Auroville. That was in 1982 and here she founded the “Arka Center” whose purpose, according to her, is “eternal youth” or reversing the ageing process.

The influential impact of her theatre years as well as the Sri Aurobindo Center in Milano tinted her life which was not only comprising of spirit but also of Art. Her hobby has always been working with fabrics and at “New Creation”, where she spent many years looking after the school, she helped decorating the school and teaching Aurovilians and villagers, using mostly a technique known in the silk process as “gutta”. The solvent-based Gutta is a thick substance that is derived from Indonesian rubber trees (Gutta Percha). It is used almost exclusively for the French Serti Technique of painting on silk. The Serti (closing or fence) technique is the silk painting technique where designs are outlined with gutta or water-based resists, which are applied to white silk that has been pre-washed, dried and stretched.

So I hope your path will lead you to Maria Grazia’s path of silk at Citadines, that you will enjoy to get on the Italy-to-India silk road and spirit and, once there, you might even be tempted to buy a pure silk colourful scarf or one of those quilts reminding you of your childhood where you used to draw a happy picture of a house on a river with a mountain in the background and a sun as big and shiny as a heart could be.

A Soldier Sails on to a Splendid Future - a ‘Salute’ to Major General Krishna Tewari

Many years ago, perhaps more than 25 years ago, in one of the community meetings, Gen. Tewari said while explaining himself, “I am a soldier...” I was not present in that meeting but I read it in the report of the meeting in News & Notes (then Auroville News). I don’t remember the context in which he said it nor the topic of the meeting but it can easily be inferred that those were perhaps slightly sensitive moments for him when he was obliged to say something publicly about his character, his temperament!

Let me elaborate!

When someone says “I am a teacher”, “I am a farmer”, “I am a doctor”, “I am a writer or a journalist” and so on, it speaks of his or her work, expertise, profession and career; his or her bent of nature. But when someone says “I am a soldier” it probably means something more than all those things. It speaks of certain qualities, certain essential attributes: firmness in service, faithfulness to a vow taken, to a promise given, to a commitment to stand, struggle, suffer and eventually, if needed, to lay down one’s life for a country or a cause. Seen from this perspective Gen. Tewari was true to his words about himself. He brought to his work a soldier’s character of commitment, discipline and dedication to a cause his heart had chosen. As a result, our little community of Auroville got many boosts, morally and materially.

During my early years in Auroville (the years between 1990 and 1992), I came to understand there was some sort of a core group, consisting of Alain Bernard, Frederick and Gen. Tewari. These three along with Roger Anger and, of course, Kireet Joshi from New Delhi were major instruments in the transition from Auroville Emergency Act to the lasting arrangement of Auroville Foundation Act, 1988 in the Indian Parliament. When they returned to Auroville from New Delhi, they spoke to the community. I remember reading their interview in the very first issue of Auroville Today in Ahmedabad, where I was living then. While explaining themselves and answering questions, Gen. Tewari said something which was reminiscent of a famous and inspiring quote used by former U.S. President John F. Kennedy in one of his speeches: “…we shall be as a City upon the hill, the eyes of all people upon us”.

Gen. Tewari came very close to saying this when he said in answer to a question: “The whole world is looking up to Auroville”. Of course, this has not to be taken literally. The world lives and moves on regardless of Auroville, but it has to be understood in the sense that many of those forward-looking people around the world who get familiar with the Auroville Charter, Auroville vision and worldview, Auroville ideas and ideal, feel that here is the bold and comprehensive vision and knowledge, here is the high level of inspiration, here is the great hope and illumined approach and outlook, here is the ascending path that opens onto “broad sunlit uplands” of the human civilization. For example, in one of her conversations with Satprem, the Mother mentions that when somebody gave to Nikita Khrushchev, then Premier of the erstwhile Soviet Union, her article “A Dream”, which forms one of the backbones of Auroville, he is reported to have said, “The whole world should unite to make it a reality.”

(This is part 1 of the 5 part tribute (Salute) to Gen. Krishna Tewari. Part 2 will be published next week. For completer article, please refer to Auroville Intranet post dt. 15th October or write to the author at aryadeep@auroville.org.in)

Auroville Up-Cycling Artist Ok invites you to:

SoS
Song of the Sea

an exhibition in Chennai @ INKO Center
From 27 October 2016 to 27 November 2016 (Sundays closed)

This exhibition displays aesthetically crafted jellyfish lampshades and fishes as well as beautifully crafted jewellery and other gift items, made of discarded plastic and CDs. Auroville-based Korean artist Ok Jeong Lee's up-cycling project draws attention to the plight of sea, teeming with life yet choking due to the growing menace of pollution, fuelled by humanity that has remained largely insensitive and indifferent. In her attempt to re-cycle and re-use material that once had a purpose but are now discarded as waste, she urges us to reconsider and recalibrate our response to the environment that we both draw from and must nurture and protect. In the beauty of the products made out of waste, there nestle both the songs of the sea, with its alluring mysteries, as well as its haunting distress call, to be loved and preserved.

You are most welcome to come to the opening on Thursday, 27 October 2016 at 6:30 / The Gallery @ INKO Centre - Chennai

Please invite your friends in Chennai.

The pleasures of food, of the erotic and of family form the very fabric of our emotional lives. And smell is an essential emotional trigger. There is more truth to call our sense of smell our sense of desire because it springs our passions. Smell moves us, subliminally and profoundly. It moves us to act and do things we are wholly unaware of. It enriches our lives, gives us unspeakable joys. All along this feature-length documentary, central storylines take us into the world of smell. Many of them have the suspense, death-defying risk and insanity of an ultimate quest. Others are moments of pure emotion and beauty. From stories of everyday experiences to accounts of the most unbelievable lives, these poignant encounters share a rare sincerity and underlie who we are - our darker side, but also what is most noble in us, and what is universal.

• AMARCORD
Italy,1974, Dir.Federico Fellini w/Magali Noel ,Bruno Zanin,Pupella Maggio and others, Drama-Comedy,123min,Italian w/Italian subtitles, Rated: PG

A year in the life of a small Italian coastal town in the nineteen-thirties, as is recalled by a director with a superstar's access to the resources of the Italian film industry and a piper's command over our imaginations. Federico Fellini's film combines the free form and make-believe splendor with the comic, bittersweet feeling for character and narrative we remember from some of his best films of the 1950s. The town in the film is based on Rimini, where Mr. Fellini grew up. Yet there is now something magical, larger-than-life about the town, its citizens and many of the things that happen to them.

Rating codes we often use are from Motion Picture Association of America (MPAA): G=General Audiences, PG=Parental guidance suggested, PG-13=Parents strongly cautioned, R=Restricted (equivalent to Indian rating: A i.e. for Adults), NR=Film Not rated, Rated, Rating awaited, or Rating not available.
