HOUSE OF MOTHER’S AGENDA

Mother, there are people who come here, who have money and are very devoted, who show their devotion, but when the question of money comes up, they bargain... Then how shall we remain on friendly terms with them? What? They are devoted, they show devotion... In what way? By taking from Him all they can? ... but when the question of money comes up, they bargain, they calculate.

I tell you, I have already answered, that’s how it is. They come with the idea of taking from the Divine all they can: all the qualities, all the capacities, all the conveniences also, all the comforts, everything, and sometimes even powers, and all the rest. They come to take, they don’t come to give. And their show of devotion is simply a cloak they have thrown over their wish to take, to receive. That covers a wide field: from saving one’s soul, having spiritual experiences, obtaining powers, to leading a petty quiet life, comfortable — more or less comfortable, at least with a minimum of comfort — without cares, without botheration, far from the worries of life. That’s how it is. That covers a wide range. But when they give, it is a kind of bargaining; they know that to obtain these things, it would be well to give a little something, otherwise they won’t get them, so they make a show of being very devoted. But it is only a pretence, for it is not sincere. Unfortunately for them, it deceives no one. It may be tolerated; but that doesn’t mean that anybody is deceived. The bargaining is everywhere, in all the parts of the being. It is always give and take, from the highest spiritual experiences to the tiniest little material needs. There is not one in a thousand who gives without bargaining. And the beauty of the story I told you — moreover, there are many others like it here — is just this, that when the old woman gave, she didn’t know that it was Shiva. She gave to the passing beggar, for the joy of doing good, of giving, not because he was a god and she hoped to have salvation or some knowledge in exchange. (Looking at the disciple) There is still some mischief in his mind. Now then, what is it? [...] He wants to ask what one must do, what should be done?

Ah! at last. What should be done?... Be sincere. That’s it; always, always, the little worm in the fruit. One tells oneself, “Oh! I can’t.” It is not true, if one wanted, one could. And there are people who tell me, “I don’t have the will-power.” That means you are not sincere. For sincerity is an infinitely more powerful force than all the wills in the world. It can change anything whatever in the twinkling of an eye; it takes hold of it, grips it, pulls it out — and then it’s over. But you close your eyes, you find excuses for yourself.

The problem recurs all the time.

It comes back because you don’t pull it out completely. What you do is, you cut the branch, so it grows again.

It takes different forms.

Yes. Well, you have to take it out every time it comes, that’s all — until it doesn’t come back any more. We have spoken about it, where was it?... Oh! it was in Lights on Yoga, I think. You push the thing down from one part of your consciousness into another; and you push it down again and then it goes into the subconscious, and after that, if you are not vigilant, you think it is finished, and later from there it shows its face. And next, even when you push it out from the subconscious, it goes down into the subconscious; and there too, then, you must run after it to find it. But there comes a time when it is over. Only, one is always in too great a hurry, one wants it to be over very quickly. When one has made an effort, “Oh! well, I made an effort, now I should get the reward for my effort.” In fact, it is because there is not that joy of progress. The joy of progress imagines that even if you have realised the goal you have put before you — take the goal we have in view: if we realise the supramental life, the supramental consciousness — well, this joy of progress says, “Oh! but this will be only a stage in the eternity of time. After this there will be something else, and then after that another and yet another, and always one will have to go further.” And that is what fills you with joy. While the idea, “Ah! now I can sit down, it is finished, I have realised my goal, I am going to enjoy what I have done”, oh, how dull it is! Immediately one becomes old and stunted.

The definition of youth: we can say that youth is constant growth and perpetual progress — and the growth of capacities, possibilities, of the field of action and range of consciousness, and progress in the working out of details. Naturally, someone told me, “So one is no longer young when one stops growing?” I said, “Of course, I don’t imagine that one grows perpetually! But one can grow in another way than purely physically.” That is to say, in human life there are successive periods. As you go forward, something comes to an end in one form, and it changes its form... Naturally, at present, we come to the top of the ladder and come down again; but that’s really a shame, it shouldn’t be like that, it’s a bad habit. But when we have finished growing up, when we have reached a height we could consider as that which expresses us best, we can transform this force for growth into a force which will perfect our body, make it stronger and stronger, more and more healthy, with an ever greater power of resistance, and we shall practise physical training in order to become a model of physical beauty. And then, at the same time, we shall slowly begin and seek the perfection of character, of consciousness, knowledge, powers, and finally of the divine Realisation in its fullness of the marvelously good and true, and of His perfect Love.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS, 11 January 1956

The Mother

Earthly life is the place for progress. It is here, on earth, that progress is possible, during the period of earthly existence. And it is the psychic which carries the progress over from one life to another, by organising its own evolution and development itself.

• The Green Belt Plan by D. Stein
A separate meeting has been arranged to discuss the issue of plans for the Green Belt, to be held at Abri on Friday 25th of November at 3 pm.

• AV Surya - Varuna solar plant
After a long, constructive discussion by all present, the Forest Group came to a collective decision on the formulation of a statement regarding the proposed location for the construction of the AV Surya solar plant by Varuna. The following statement will be sent to the TDC by Wednesday 9th of November:-

Forest Group feedback on site application for AV Surya - Varuna Solar Plan
The Forest Group would first like to state that it supports the building of a solar plant in Auroville and sees the very positive aspect of feeding green energy into the Auroville grid.

Having said that, the Forest Group feels that its present proposed placement in an area that requires tree cutting and subsequent tree management for shade and storm damage, due to the solar plant butting up against a green area, is not the most appropriate location. It was expressed that the plant would be better located on existing roof space or on empty or under-utilised land, which would not require too much clearing of vegetation. The issue of its location in respect to creating a "line of force", as per present master plan, of vegetation. The issue of its location in respect to creating a "line of force", as per present master plan, would be better located on existing roof space or on empty or under-utilised land, which would not require too much clearing of vegetation. The issue of its location in respect to creating a “line of force”, as per present master plan, would not require too much clearing of vegetation.

The Forest Group hopes that Varuna is also open to build this project on other land and that it is not fixed on this 'line of force" formation. The Forest Group can understand the importance of such a solar plant and it hopes that the TDC and land board could find alternative locations. The Gaia frisbee field and Adventure sports ground were both mentioned as possibilities to explore.

• Dana Forest - stewardship / watchman
Marie-Angel wishes to take care of the forest at Dana. She expressed the need for more financial support to pay for a watchman. As she is presently getting a watchman budget from the Forest Group that only partially covers the wages like all stewards, it was felt that for this month this extra could be covered by the FG buffer. A longer-term solution needs to be found and as a start the FG will draft a request to the Dana Community and potteries to see if they could collectively pool funds to cover this monthly need.

• Maintenance requests
- Satyaaji (Meadow). It was agreed that Satyaaji should receive a half-maintenance for his work in Meadow and the wider AV community.
- Quentin (Revelation). Quentin presented his role in maintaining the forest at Revelation. The Forest Group recommends that Quentin should be awarded an Apprentice Forest Maintenance for his commitment to forest work in Revelation and in AV.

Forest Group whole-heartedly supports their request that the Secretary of Auroville communicates with the Pondicherry peramboke land in the canyons adjoining Forecomers. The Forest Group whole-heartedly supports their request that the Secretary of Auroville communicates with the Pondicherry authorities to explore options of how to effectively curb hunting activities in the area.

Next meeting: The next meeting will be held at Revelation on the 2nd of December at 3 pm.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Invitation to a General Meeting

Topic:
ITDC presentation on the projects eventually coming up in the near future

4.00 pm, Thursday December 1st, at Unity Pavilion

The ITDC together with the RAS is in the process of preparing a series of General Information Meetings about various projects eventually coming up in the near future.

On Thursday, 1st December (04.00 pm, Unity Pavilion) a first meeting will happen in which the ITDC will present the basic project information and project parameters as given in the site/building application.

This meeting is meant as a first step to invite the community to an informed participative process. It will be structured in a basic presentation on the various projects (approx. 60 min, given by the ITDC) and an open discussion on available and possible next steps.

While the ITDC imagines as subsequent steps that each project will be presented in more details by the team of project holders and architects (if already decided) the outcome of this first meeting might bring new ideas.

For this process to be effective please make an effort to attend the meeting.

Thank you in advance, The ITDC team and the RAS team

Appeal Process

Dear Community,
The final draft of the appeal process is on Auronet, please see the link: https://www.auroville.org.in/article/59599.
The major change is that Housing Board’s decisions have to be reviewed first by the FAMC as it relates to Auroville assets and then the FAMC decision on the concerned issue will be appealable. Therefore, we removed the Housing Board from the working groups whose decisions can be appealed.
The appeal process will be reviewed after one year.

The Auroville Council invites you to attend a general meeting on Friday 9th December at 4 pm in Unity Pavilion to listen and answer to all remaining questions on the Appeal Process.
The final version after the GM will be submitted to your final approval before the process becomes operational.

Warmly, The Auroville Council

Policy on Prevention of Sexual Harassment

Dear community, as previously announced, in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act 2013 and with the approval of the Governing Board of the Auroville Foundation, the Working Committee constituted the “Auroville Internal Complaints Committee” (iCC) which took office on 24 October 2015.
The ICC will deal with issues of sexual harassment as defined in the Act that are brought to its notice, which involve a resident of Auroville, a newcomer, a friend of Auroville, a volunteer in Auroville, a student of Auroville, a guest of Auroville as well as a person employed by or working for an Auroville trust, an Auroville unit, an Auroville service, any other Auroville legal entity, or individual residing in Auroville.

The Working Committee and the Auroville council present the policy which will be applicable in such cases. As the policy is mandatory its raison d’être cannot be questioned and therefore is considered applicable from its date of publication.

We would like to remind the community that sexual harassment might mean any form of unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature. Auroville will not tolerate any form of sexual harassment and we all are committed to take all steps to ensure a living and working environment free from sexual harassment. At the same time, Auroville will not tolerate people who abuse the law by submitting a false complaint to harm somebody else.

We invite you to go through the policy and give your feedback within the next 2 weeks. We will integrate substantial feedback and the policy will be considered approved by 3rd of December, 2016.

L’avenir d’Auroville / TDC - Site and Building Applications feedback - 19th Nov 2016

The following Site and Building Applications (SA and BA) are announced for feedback from the community for a period of two weeks from the date of publication. The announcement is made for feedback only and does not mean that the project has final approval. The final approval is given when L’avenir d’Auroville / TDC issues a NOC (No Objection Certificate). This happens once the feedback period is over, the feedback has been evaluated, a final decision by TDC has been reached and the necessary financial formalities have been completed. It is only after issuing a final building permission that fencing, building or any other activity on the site can start.

It has to be noted that site permission is given to reserve the site for a maximum period of two years in order to prepare a project proposal. It does not give any right to fence and clear the site unless, for practical reasons, there is a special permission of the TDC.

Background: The AV Library got a boost in 2008 when a new library building was sanctioned, and the building was completed and occupied in 2010. Below, we present a graph of how much the library has been used over the last five years. The number of books read has doubled in the last 5 years, indicating a growth rate of about 15%.

Triggers: There are about 2,000 accounts in the library now, of which 1,500 can be said to be regular users. The shelf space in the new library is 130 m², and is supposed to be for 45,000 books. However, between purchases and donations we have already reached 39,000 books, and are acquiring new books at 6,000 books per year plus donations which can be very substantial.

Goals/Objectives: the present extension should allow the library to increase the shelving space needed to absorb the growing number of books and also allow for browsing stations including e-section for research / study.

For more information on the location of the plots mentioned above, you can find this same announcement with map(s) on the Auronet page of L’avenir d’Auroville/TDC.
November 24th 1926 was the date of Sri Aurobindo’s great siddhi or realization, opening the gates to a greater, spiritualized consciousness for Humanity. He consecrated the next 24 years to concretizing the promise of Spirit and Matter in harmony.

Auroville is the designated place for pioneering Sri Aurobindo’s great vision. Over the past 48 years, it has flowered step-by-inspiring step, thanks to so many acts of individual and collective dedication. But one step is still needed – completing Auroville’s material body with urgently-needed Master Plan area land.

For Auroville’s upcoming 50th birthday, Acres for Auroville is building a gift of gratitude – the precious gift of land! We thank all the donors whose invaluable support has already made part of this gift possible – you have our sincere gratitude. All friends and visionaries are invited to join us in solidarity for building the City of Dawn. Setting the tone for us all, The Mother had these words engraved in the marble of Sri Aurobindo’s Samadhi:

“May we never forget even for a moment, all we owe to Thee”

Let’s show our gratitude for the Vision & the achievements! Help build the 50th birthday gift of land!!

“The true spirit of Auroville is collaboration and must be more and more so. True collaboration paves the way to divinity.”
(The Mother, 22 October 1972)

If we regard collaboration as something growing, an evolving thing, then the above words of the Mother are relevant for us all - for those of us who live and work in Auroville, or are associated from a distance. Collaboration stands, deepens, and evolves on a number of essential pillars. Gratitude is one of them - gratitude for being able to serve a vision that leads to a better and nobler life for all. But when the fire of gratitude gets engulfed and pushed into background, another pillar is needed to sustain the collaboration. And that is patience. Wrote Sri Aurobindo: “I am weary of the childish impatience which cries & blasphemes and denies the ideal because the Golden Mountains cannot be reached in our little day or in a few momentary centuries.” (Sri Aurobindo - The Hour of God, Vol: 17, Page.116-Thoughts and Aphorisms, SABCL)

This aphorism of Sri Aurobindo gives us a perspective of time and teaches a lesson in patience while collaborating with Auroville. The aims of Auroville - human unity, a new creation, a new world - are akin to a golden mountain, something vast, glorious and enchanting. But we should not be disheartened or discouraged if it takes time to reach them. After all, in the panorama of evolution, a few groups of centuries are but momentary.

We can apply this perspective to our situation as well. Auroville is approaching 50 years. Still we have yet to secure a unified physical base. But we should be careful not to harbor feelings of weariness or discouragement for the delay. As a friend and donor to Auroville from New Zealand recently wrote to us, “Auroville has before her an eternity, while the (private) developers would at most have a lifetime or two.” With this understanding in the background, the spirit of collaboration attains a calm maturity and power of resilience while keeping the joyous flame of determination.

24th November is a major milestone on the path that Sri Aurobindo was carving out for the world to reach the Golden Mountain. At “Acres for Auroville” we regard it this date as a “Goodwill Activation Point” for a unified City area and a unified Greenbelt.

A call for architectural proposals

SAIIER is planning to develop a new youth hostel along the Crown Road of Auroville, opposite Solar Kitchen (plot no. IR 218/1A between the round-about to its right and the future Line Of Force and DU CR.2.7.0 as per DPPD2016). Learning from SAIIER’s last selection process, SAIIER will create an advisory board constituted of experienced architects and at least two SAIIER representatives to support this process throughout and select and recommend a final entry for approval by the SAIIER Board. The approved project will subsequently be implemented as per SAIIER works manual.

The Background: The Mitra youth hostel, as it is in its current capacity cannot accommodate all young volunteers and interns of Auroville. Furthermore, the residential zone for many people is a sub-optimal location to host the dynamic life style of these young people.

Therefore SAIIER is planning to build a new youth hostel, along with a hostel - ‘Fujiko House’ - proposed by Kenji and Chieko. SAIIER has invited Kenji and Chieko to club resources, share expertise and future facilities in a combined project to explore a new way of working with mixed fund resources. It is intended to accommodate Autryville’s volunteers and interns, similar to the current Mitra users.

The Brief: The project is two-fold and therefore challenges the architects of Auroville to synthesize two projects into a single harmonious whole.

The first part is the SAIIER youth hostel - Mitra2- and the second part is the Fujiko House.

The vision leading to combining these projects is based on sharing not only expertise but sharing facilities, optimizing infrastructural efforts and bringing the next stage of urbanism onto the crown road.

Details regarding program and parameters will be available on AuroNet, in SAIIER or per mail (please send your request to: saier-construction@auroville.org.in)

The process: SAIIER, in collaboration with TDC, has designed the brief for the project and received site permission. Interested Auroville Architects with a registered unit under the Auroville Foundation are invited to express their interest within two weeks of publication. The day after, a compilation of required documents will be sent out by email or be available for pick-up from the SAIIER office. All eventual questions can be mailed to SAIIER or dropped off in writing to SAIIER and will be collected.

On the 3rd of December 2016 all interested architects will be invited for a meeting with the project holders and the advisory board for an open sharing session. A compilation of all questions and their respective answers will be given to all participants at that time. A collective site visit can be organized afterwards, if desired.

SAIIER will provide the following documents:
- Brief
- Program requirements
- Site map (jpg & dwg)
- Survey (to be given by TDC)
- Compilation of relevant details from DDP 2016
- Preliminary Estimate Format
- PSR document (CPWD issued rates)

All entries have to be submitted to SAIIER on or before the 3rd of February 2017. The submission format has to be a maximum of four numbers of A2 boards/sheets and a separate explanatory note with not more than 1,000 words. In the upper right corner of the boards/sheets, a four-digit code chosen by the participants shall be placed. This code shall be entered also in the explanatory note accompanying the project.

Submission shall be in hard and soft copy and the project materials shall not display the authors’ names, their photographs, initials or logos. The submissions shall include:
- Concept development
- All relevant plans [site, floor plans] (all to scale)
- Elevations (to scale)
- Sections (to scale)
- Material choices
- Relevant details from the DDP 2016
- Details on sustainable measures/ecological features
- Basic visuals/sketches of spaces
- Estimation (PSR from CPDW to be considered for preparing the preliminary estimate)
- A physical model is strongly encouraged, but not mandatory

Submissions after the 3rd of February 2017 will not be considered. Incomplete submissions can be considered, but no additional information given at a later stage will be considered.

The shortlisted architects will get a chance to present their proposals in person to the advisory board for feedback and revision. (Date yet to be announced.)

The start of construction is aimed for April 2017. The project execution will follow the Works Manual of SAIIER (a SAIIER representative will be available for clarifications and support in regards to CPWD standards and SAIIER works manual).

For further questions please contact us at: SAIIER- construction@auroville.org.in or 9047725507 (Michael).

Restorative Dialogue across cultures

On Saturday November 5th, 21 Aurovilians met at the Pavilion of Tibetan Culture to dive into a deep inquiry on the roots of cultural divides and how we can heal and overcome them.

The journey of this dialogue confronted us with stereotypes held on both sides, as "local Tamilians" and as "Vellakaras". It brought us through deep pain and uneasiness, into a powerful space of appreciation of the qualities, values and strengths of each culture. We experienced richness and Unity.

Our learning:
- When we meet person to person we mostly connect directly, we experience and value the person as an individual.
- When we talk about a person or a group, we often attach labels to that person/group, we stereotype them, put them into a box, judge them.
- We use stereotypes especially when we talk about certain groups, like Vellakaras (Westerners), or local Tamilians, or Entry Service etc.
- The Tamil culture, as also the European one and all other cultures, holds deep values. Seeing and Being in this space makes us strong, and unites us. Being in this space also helps us to work with shadows, aspects from our cultural background which are not adequate any longer, or aspects which got distorted.
- Each of us can contribute to the healing of cultural divides by careful use of language, whereby we avoid using labels and stereotypes.
- We can help each other in becoming aware of stereotypes and labels in our conversations by pointing them out.

News from Savi: an enquiry on units & services hosting volunteers & interns

While a lot of discussions are currently going on in the community on the causes of the slow growth of Auroville economy (and population), we in Savi think that the human resources should be looked at with the same attention as financial figures. To contribute to the overall debate, we request the cooperation of all working places (units, services, activities, farms, forests, etc) to reply to a questionnaire on volunteers that will be sent out in the coming week. Its outcome will be very helpful to set a snapshot of the present situation, giving a ground to solutions that could improve the impact of external volunteers to the Auroville development and the conditions of their stay altogether.

Afro/Reggae festival cancelled

The African Pavilion team would like to inform the community that the Afro Reggae festival announced last week for the coming weekend was not organised by the African Pavilion Team and without its knowing. It is therefore cancelled. Sorry for the misunderstanding. The African Pavilion Team

For your information...

Today (Tuesday Nov 15), around 12noon, I was driving in the direction of Solar Kitchen, and was near the Kindergarten. I saw an Indian-looking man alongside the cycle path, and I noticed that his pants were open, and he was exposing himself to a woman who was cycling along. I stopped as soon as I could make out what was happening, and I yelled from the across the street, "hello... hello...! HELLO...!" He didn't make eye contact, but clearly got my intervention. He got on his bike as quickly as he could, his belt still open. There was traffic and a car coming behind me, so I couldn't cross the street fast enough to get closer. I drove on and the woman was waiting up ahead, grateful that I made a scene. I told the guard at the roundabout. Submitted by L’aura

Living Planet Report: an excellent Blueprint for urgent change

Global wildlife populations could drop two-thirds by 2020 if human demand continues to exceed the planet’s capacity...

Every second year, the World Wildlife Fund (WWF) and the Zoological Society of London make a report on the health of the planet with an updated index of its Wildlife population.

The latest Living Planet Report, released last month, follows on the remarkable successes in 2015 of the Paris Agreement on Climate Change and the Agreement on the Sustainable Development Goals for people and planet, also ratified last year.

An essential assessment of the health of the planet, this latest report is shocking to read even for the well-informed. It corroborates the mountain of evidence showing how the Earth’s systems are under acute threat in the most basic and essential aspects: climate, biodiversity, state of the oceans, water- nitrogen- and carbon-cycles, as well as agriculture.

In a recent Green Column we reported that a new geological epoch that has been defined, named the Anthropocene, an extraordinarily short and traumatic time shifting our world on its axis. The Living Planet Report documents how human activity affects the Earth’s life support systems. Providing a new lens to see our human footprint, it conveys the urgency with which we must act now. We humans are no longer a small world on a big planet, we are a big world on a small planet where we have reached saturation point.

From localised deforestation to global air pollution, unsustainability on all scales is putting our future at risk. Over just fifty years of exponential economical growth, its effects have accumulated to such an extent to have reached and even crashed through so-called ‘planetary boundaries’. The latter is a concept used by scientists to define the thresholds of a ‘safe operating space for humanity’, beyond which lies the probability of irreversible and abrupt change of the Earth’s environment.

In conclusion: The relative planetary stability which allowed the Earth’s animal species and many ecosystems to develop and flourish, can no longer be relied upon. The only way to avert catastrophe is a great and swift transformation. Going beyond depicting a looming disaster, this report, which is brilliantly presented, makes for spellbound reading and is easily accessible on the internet, shows a way forward, based on the framework of ‘systems thinking’. Starting from humanity’s most immediate concerns, food and energy, it provides the necessary thought and vision to put the world on a sustainable trajectory to ensure a resilient Earth for future generations, and gives the momentum to move from talk to practical action.

Sections of the Report focus on the Anthropocene, Biodiversity, and Risks & Resilience. A few points in overview:

- Biodiversity: The Living Planet Index measures biodiversity abundance levels based on more than 14’000 monitored populations of 3364 vertebrate species, and it shows a persistent downward trend with bleak figures. Populations have already declined on average by 35 - 40 % since 1970, and risk to decline by 67% by 2020!! This is more than two-thirds of wildlife on this planet lost in just one lifetime!

- Risks: Consuming more than Nature can deliver endangers the key environmental systems we all rely upon. Our use of Natural resources has grown drastically since the mid-20th century. Presently the global human population consumes each year the resources of 1.6 planet Earths (some countries consume considerably less, others much more; for instance Canada’s ecological footprint needs 4.7 Earths). Wildlife is paying the direct price; already there are mass migrations in response to changing climate and seasons, with animals struggling to find water and food, or fleeing from wildfires.

- Resilience: The 21st Century presents humanity with a dual challenge: to maintain Nature in all of its many forms and functions, so as to create an equitable home for fauna, people and flora on a finite planet. Now it is human rather than natural forces that will be drivers of Planetary Change. We can redefine our relationship with our planet from a wasteful, unsustainable and predatory one, to one where people and nature can coexist in harmony.

We in Auroville and the seven billion inhabitants of our planet all have our role to play in this momentous transition. It is hoped that the Paris Agreement will hold, and that all countries, including the new administration of the USA, will collaborate to curb climate change and uphold the Sustainable Development Goals, recognising these measures as an absolute priority to safeguard our shared home, beautiful planet Earth. Sources: WWF Living Planet Report 2016; Planetary Boundary Concept (Rockstrom). The Living Planet Report can be downloaded in full from the WWF and other websites; it contains excellent graphics and illustrations that can be used as educational tools. The Summary can be downloaded in English, French, German, Spanish and Italian.

We like to hear from you on any green, environmental topic. Do write to us at avgreencenter@auroville.org.in. The Green Column is published bi-weekly on Auronet and in the News & Notes - For the AV Green Center: Lisbeth, Jasmin.

Sharing on last week’s “New Funds” note

RamaNarayananji’s note to the collectivity is of timely concern. I would like to add from Mother’s To Be a True Aurovilian”-a condition that to be equally considered by all residents:

“The Aurovilian should lose the sense of personal possession. For our passage in the material world, what is indispensable to our life and to our action is put at our disposal according to the place we must occupy. The more we are consciously in contact with our inner being, the more are the exact means given to us.” (page 208 Aims and Principles MCW-vol.13)

This is Mother’s guideline, concern and warning for all of us supposed to be here to manifest Her Dream. It is also my own personal experience that even a small effort on this line gave me positive results and increases the confidence and faith.

Mother has also approved to circulate a note in Auroville. It is by Sri Aurobindo ( I do not now remember the source) where Inner Harmony or Union in the Mother are emphasized for external organization.

With gratitude, Svanala
The joy of life

“Art washes from the soul the dust of everyday life.” ~ Pablo Picasso

If I had to sum up the new Art exhibit “The joy of life” by Helgart Zurmuehi opening up in le Centre d’Art, Citadine, this Saturday November 19th, this is the sentence I would choose.

If an alien or a new born mind was to go to an exhibition of Caravaggio and then on the same day to another of Mariana Abravomic, he would be extremely confused about the conception of art. And yet regardless of time, epoch, culture, individuality and trends, something remains the same, it is what is considered the thrust and the vitality of the energy of life and it is called emotion. The artist in his river of creativity expresses emotion and the viewer cannot help feeling, and it is the subtlety of this space in between who makes the journey so interesting.

You could almost call the all process art therapy, which as a matter of fact is one of Helgart’s work, and through an intermingling of vision and mind, you would go on a restorative journey of abstract work of leaves, fossils, people, numbers and mantras, all bathing in a mostly predominant white and turquoise colouring, leaving the exhibit with a feeling that you would not mind yourself to try one of those medicinal, healing art séance.

Once a textile teacher in Germany and a psychologist, Helgart has also studied in Art academy, but mostly what truly transcend through her art is her capabilities and talents in children art therapy. Her first spiritual experience being with a subconscious relationship with a tree during a first visit in Auroville, she decided that this is where she wanted to be...and here in this place where she thinks everything is slowing down and give her the space for painting... she paints.

Like a lot of abstract artist she will tell you that she feels free not to have any concept and just wants to play using the very fashionable trend of the moment, which is blending and combining elements like cloth, paint and newspapers, which also sometimes makes me wonder if we should not call it more “manual work” instead of painting, and she will just keep on doing whatever she pleases, like destroying the white with whatever comes in her hand only because the canvas happens to be white, and of course without really knowing how this whole journey would end.

So yes, there is a lot of authenticity in the technique itself and In art therapy she says you want people to overcome their blockage, like teaching children with special need how to dive in the water and trust; you want them TO BE, knowing that there is no right or wrong, and only then through freedom of expression, peace and joy, you can connect to your true self and the divine.

Impressions of enormous leaves with detailed delicate veins, fossils, numbers appearing out of nowhere in a turquoise or white background where the imagination create fishes, mermaids and old castles lost in a Neptunian world, other pieces with numbers of her niece’s birthday, others with the inscription of the Tibetan mantra “Om Mani Padme Hum”, reflective of the artist attachment to the wisdom of Tibetan Buddhism, it is all there for you, but all with very happy joyful pink, white and turquoise colours.

So, you could ask yourself if this creative process is a growth producing experience or if it is just a mean of symbolic communication expressing aspect of the human experience?

Regardless, in our days and times where expression, not only in art, but in almost everything, overcomes concept, traditional teaching and structure for the better and the worst, you can still try to put all your preconceived thoughts away and reflect on a sentence as old as Plato, saying that: “Beholding beauty with the eye of the mind, he will be enabled to bring forth, not images of beauty, but realities.” ~ Chana Corinne Devor for AVArtservice.

When: Tuesday 22nd of November 2016 between 3:30 - 6:30 pm
Where: Unity Pavilion
What: Integral Economy - From Where we are to Where we can be

By Aurelio, Helena, Jaya, Torkil, Uma and others

Join the dynamic emergence of an inspired move and consecration towards a self-supportive and thriving Auroville economy: From fear, insecurity and scarcity of passing evolutionary shadows to the 'Prosperity' of a radiantly innovative and courageous City of Dawn, for "A SIMPLY RICH AND BEAUTIFUL LIFE FOR ALL" (Sri Aurobindo, The Hour of God)

CATs will meet every week from now on till end of March 2017 on various topics

CAT is a collaborative space to move together from a relative stagnant system to a culture that unleashes our creative energies; CAT is a springboard for the future and to let Auroville build us; CAT is a Space to respond with discernment, respect and in a spirit of collaboration instead of reacting to issues based on likes, dislikes and distrust.

We invite individuals, initiatives, projects & groups to contact us and offer to share their knowledge and experience from their Inspirational Space. Enjoy and contribute with your knowledge, skills and talents to draw the amazing canvas of Auroville in alignment with the Dream we all share.

Monday, 21st of November 2016 at 6:30 pm

“SIDDHI DAY - THE DAY OF VICTORY”

On 24th of November 1926 Krishna’s consciousness descended into Sri Aurobindo’s body. Dr. Alok Pandey speaks about this important event of the descent of the Overmind Godhead and about the realisations of Sri Aurobindo and the renunciations he did in his life and for his work. Yoga implies a double movement: yoga of accomplishment and a movement of renunciation.

Dr. Alok Pandey puts light on the renunciations of Sri Aurobindo and explains that they were a preparation for a next step. After the experience of Nirvana Sri Aurobindo plunged in outer political activities, then in jail he had experiences of Vasudeva and experiences of Supramental Oneness. After this Sri Aurobindo was busy with ‘Divine man making’ and his Parabrahman realisation opened the doors to further evolution and he was supramentalising the Overmind which brought some challenges for the gods and the human beings.

In 1953 Mother speaks about another renunciation: “Sri Aurobindo has given up his body in an act of supreme selflessness, renouncing the realisation in his own body to hasten the hour of the collective realisation.”

Narad interviewed Dr. Alok Pandey in November 2014.

LE PAVILLON DE FRANCE Presents
« HUMAN VOL. I »
Saturday 26th November 2016 - 5:00 pm
at Cinema Paradiso (Town Hall)
Director: Yann Arthus Bertrand - Duration 83 mins
French documentary without English subtitles
5 years after the worldwide success of the film HOME with more than 600 million spectators. Yann Arthus- Bertrand presents his new project. “I am a man among seven billion others. For 40 years I have been photographing our planet and its human diversity and I feel that humanity is not going ahead. We still cannot live together. Why? I looked for the answer, not in statistics, not in analyses, but in Man.” HUMAN is a diptych stories and images of our world to create an immersion in the depths of the human being. Through the testimonies of happiness filled with love but also with hatred and violence, HUMAN confronts us with the Other and brings us back to our own lives. Aerial pictures with music as an opera, show the beauty of the world and offer us moments of breathing and introspection. The film allows us to embrace the human condition and to think about the very meaning of our existence. “I dreamed of a film where the power of words resonates over the beauty of the world”. Beyond the film itself, the ambition of the project is to re-create links and gathering of strong values of solidarity and commitment in order to live together in the long run. We hope that this film will be an opportunity to debate and allow the local networks to present their own initiatives.

IMPORTANT:
We are going to show the 3 films at the Paradiso:
« HUMAN VOL. II » - on Saturday 10th December 5 pm
« HUMAN VOL. III » - on Saturday 14th December 5 pm

- PARTY

India, 1984, Dir. Govind Nihalani w/ Deepa Sahi, Ilu Arun, Raju Barot, and others, Drama, 110mins, Hindi w/ English subtitles, Rated: U (G)

A social gathering is held to commemorate Divakar Barve for the award he receive pertaining his contributions to Indian Arts and Films. Socialites and important public personalities mingle. They expect Amrit to attend. Amrit is an activist who, as we get to know via conversations, works among tribal people trying to protect their land and rights. The atmosphere of the event changes drastically when Avinash, a friend and co-worker of Amrit arrives. This is an AMAZING film that has remained completely relevant and topical through all these years. If you look through the slightly grainy picture quality, a bit archaic décor, dress, and lack of mobile phones you will find yourself in the present. Issues and relations depicted in this film made then is exactly what we’re dealing with now. A MUST see!

He drives off and offers money to Eyüp if Eyüp will take the fall - probably a six-month sentence.
