HOUSE OF MOTHER’S AGENDA

THE NEW BODY

The Mother’s progress which we are trying to sketch here was complex, as complex as Life, of which most humans have only a very narrow and superficial notion. The Subconscient and the Inconscient were for her a conscious reality where she fought most of her battles, while for us it is a hidden reality by which we are blindly driven. Simultaneously, there were concretely present to her all the upper levels of existence, the realms of Light, and Beauty, and Joy, and Love. It is true that she gave the proportion between both kinds of experience as ‘three minutes of splendour for twelve hours of misery,’ or ‘some seconds of paradise for hours of hell,’ but even behind the most terrible suffering there was an inner ecstasy which allowed her to say that the ordeal did not keep her occupied.

What was she trying to realize in those last years of her earthly existence? It was the induction of the supramental substance or Matter into the earthly gross matter, in other words the fusing of both worlds. She said that this took place by a process that she called ‘permeation.’ She reported that the transformation of the consciousness of the body cells from the ordinary consciousness, burdened by the fear and horrors of the past millennia, into a divine Consciousness had taken place in a great number of her cells. ‘The physical is capable of receiving the higher Light, the Truth, the true Consciousness, and to manifest it.’ When stating this, however, she asked herself how far her body would be able to express this change, to what extent her body could be transformed.

As early as January 1961 the Mother had mentioned the presence in her physical body of another body that was ‘bigger, more voluminous’ — we are reminded of Rijuta’s psychic being which exceeded the boundaries of her physical body — and that had ‘such a compact power that it was almost annoying.’ A year later, after her ‘death’ and ‘resurrection’ in 1962, she noticed that during the night she was ‘generally tall and strong.’ Around that time, it became a common experience for those who saw the Mother in their dreams or visions to see her as much taller than she was physically. When told about this, she commented that it was ‘the new being,’ and she specified that it was a being not from the Vital but from the subtle physical. As we know, what she called the subtle physical in those years was not a more refined substance than the physical, it was the Supramental. For of that subtle physical she said ‘It is not material and yet more concrete than Matter.’

[...] The Mother by her yoga of the transformation of the cells had built in, or out of, her physical body a supramental body in which she existed while still in her physical body. She was existing in two ‘physical’ bodies at the same time, the one in the gross physical and the other in the subtle physical, which in her terminology meant the Supramental.

[...] Thus she reported her incredible accomplishment in the simplest of words. She had built the prototype of the supramental body and was living in it in the most natural way. This prototype, being supramental, is immortal and therefore still exists. The Mother is still present in the Earth-atmosphere in her supramental body, continuing her Work, awakening, inspiring and guiding the transitional beings everywhere on the globe, continuing to transform gross Matter, hastening the world towards its transformation. This she does together with Sri Aurobindo, of whom she said that he was ‘very constantly present,’ and for the celebration of whose birth centenary, on 15 August 1972, she formulated the so simple but profound message: ‘One more step towards Eternity.’ Such is the Work of the Avatar in its simplest definition: one more step towards Eternity. Sri Aurobindo’s descent into death, the supramental manifestation of 1956, the realization of the overman in 1958, the descent of the overman consciousness in 1969 — this whole series of superevents with a direct bearing on each and every one of us, whether we are aware of it or not, was now crowned by the formation and permanent existence of a supramental body. Its visible multiplication or reproduction in a refined earthly substance is only a matter of time. Sri Aurobindo and the Mother’s last estimate was that it would take three hundred years.

It is indispensable that each one finds his psychic and unites with it definitively. It is through the psychic that he Supramental will manifest itself.

WORKING GROUPS REPORTS

Report and Reflections from the Water Group, July 2017

Even though it rained a bit in June, this was not enough to replenish the acquirers below us. It is critical that we all continue to conserve water, particularly until the main monsoon in October, which we hope will be a plentiful one.

The Water Group has been active in the summer months. We are working to strengthen the monitoring team by expanding the one-man team to two two-man teams. In this way, we will be able to have more consistent monitoring of more wells within the township and hopefully outside too. During this period we also approached AVI Germany to help us with the acquisition of a water level measuring tape that is so essential to our ongoing well monitoring activities. We are in constant need of resources, human and financial to carry out our work. Please contact us if you can assist, or if you have ideas of how to help.

As part of the Crisis Management Plan, the Water Group, with the support of WC, AVC, and iTDC, has informed Auroville Water Service to temporarily cease the filling of tankers from the AWS filling point at the City Centre until further notice. We are also happy to share that AWS has been diligent in its efforts to discover leakages in communities, particularly Invocation, where water usage has been reduced by 30%.

In addition, we have been consulting, advising, and following up with a variety of water situations throughout Auroville, including people who are looking to alleviate dire water situations and reports of excessive water use by individuals. In all of these cases, we observe two common threads. First, there is a common misconception that water is a private commodity and that is not owned by a shared resource. It is critical to remember that we are all sharing one resource, so hoarding or wasting water actually doesn’t benefit anyone in the long run, just you in the short term. Such attitudes do not help to build Auroville. Second, we often get the feedback that the Water Group should hold people accountable for their water usage. We feel this is the work of everyone. So if you see someone watering their lavish garden, say something to them or report it to their community. Or if you notice people spraying their lavish garden, say something to them or report it to their community. Or if you notice any other Drs of MM are too green in these parched summer months, inquire with MM executives or write a public letter. Let’s hold each other accountable to conserve this precious shared resource.

Finally, please remember that the feedback period on the first phase of the Water Management Strategy (Vision and Guiding Principles) ends on July 15. You can find the document here: http://aurovillewater.in/water-management-strategy-feedback/

L’avenir d’Auroville / TDC – Site and Building Applications feedback - 8th Jul 2017

The following Site and Building Applications (SA and BA) are announced for feedback from the community for a period of two weeks from the date of publication. The announcement is made for feedback only and does not mean that the project has final approval. The final approval is given when L’avenir d’Auroville / TDC issues a NOC (No Objection Certificate). This happens once the feedback period is over, the feedback has been evaluated, a final decision by TDC has been reached and the necessary financial formalities have been completed. It is only after issuing a final building permission that fencing, building or any other activity on the site can start.

It has to be noted that site permission is given to reserve the site for a maximum period of two years in order to prepare a project proposal. It does not give any right to fence and clear the site unless, for practical reasons, there is a special permission of the TDC.

Try the polished varagu at Solar Kitchen!

Solar Kitchen works closely with Foodlink to promote a self-sufficient local economy. Eating local, fresh and organic grains is good for our health, for the health of our local economy and the health of the planet. Solar Kitchen is experimenting with polished varagu dishes for 2 weeks, starting July 10th. Earlier Solar Kitchen served only unpolished varagu. But now we have varagu that is lightly polished so that it retains most of its nutrients, but is easier to digest than unpolished varagu. Please try it! And inform Solar Kitchen Team if you prefer it in your tiffin.

Feedback about the polished varagu can be given to Foodlink (foodlink@auroville.org.in).

About millets

All over the world, rice and wheat are the main staples in our diet. Due to a number of reasons, millet cultivation both in Auroville and the surrounding region is dying out. So along with procuring millets from Auroville farms, in order to support millet cultivation in the bioregion, Annapurna Farm sources millets from local trusted farmers. All grains are cleaned and processed for consumption in the Auroville granary at Annapurna farm.

Like rice and wheat, millets belong to the grass family. They are small-seeded grasses which have been under cultivation in some parts of the world for more than 10,000 years. Varagu (Kodo millet, Paspalum Scrobiculatum) is a minor millet and a rich source of protein, fiber and minerals (see Nutritional Chart below).

Tribute to Yolande

The experience of human life on an earth is not now for the first time enacted. It has been conducted a million times before and the long drama will again a million times be repeated. In all that we do now, our dreams, our discoveries, our swift or difficult attainments, we profit subconsciously by the experience of innumerable precursors and our labour will be fecund in planets unknown to us and in worlds yet uncreated. The plan, the peripetia, the denouement differ continually, yet are always governed by the conventions of an Eternal Art. God, Man, Nature are the three perpetual symbols. The idea of eternal recurrence affects with a shudder of alarm the mind entrenched in the minute, the hour, the years, the centuries, all the finite's unreal defences. But the strong soul conscious of its own immortal stuff and the inexhaustible ocean of its ever-flowing energies is seized by it with the thrill of an inconceivable rapture. It hears behind the thought the childlike laughter and ecstasy of the Infinite.

Sri Aurobindo, The Hour of God

In Pondicherry with common friends and in Auroville in the years 1990-2000 we met at different occasions. H.O.M.A. offers you and all those with whom you have cooperated in the service at the work of Sri Aurobindo-Mother a profound gratitude. We never forgot that sentence, engraved in my memory “You are the guardian of the Essence of Mother’s work, continue, resist and endure.”

Thank you for everything.

After Satprem’s and Sujata’s departure we, at Savitri Bhavan, received a whole series of photos where you are with them.

May Sri Aurobindo’s-Mother’s Love carry you forever!

Water

I was reading “Auroville Water Vision & Guiding Principles: Version 1 (April 2017)”

The draft Blue paper is divided into a number of subsections and tries to create awareness, governance, and practical ways to make AV and its bioregion more sustainable in its water supply and demand (though the report places more emphasis on the SUPPLY SIDE). The Water Group wants feedback on the document. The issues of governance and awareness & negligence of responsibilities in relationship to our neighbors and bioregion are many but today I’ll discuss an issue related to bore wells.

I’ve been riding my cycle around a lot just to see how things are changing in the area and one new challenge is encroachment. People (those are not Aurovilians) buy a plot nearby, build a big house and sink a bore well. So, this new infringement development is exacerbating the draining of the aquifer. Surrounding and within Auroville we have a lot of encroachment by developers buying large tracks of land and selling off house-size lots and then leaving it to each individual to make a bore! You would think that the Chennai Gov. knows this is folly - how to create the political will to create policy/governance that make developers responsible for water (1 bore well and water tank to supply all homes in his/her sub-division) and how do you make this policy retroactive? The AWVGP suggests numerous times that AV should be pro-active and address any actions that threaten water sustainability in the bioregion. The litmus test is to see if the AWVGP is an action paper or a paper tiger.

Unless AV can deal with this subdivision encroachment the aquifers are doomed. There is even a bigger and older problem, the subsidized water and electricity to farmers. They sink bore wells and can pump as long as they like.

I realise that both these issues are beyond the scope of the Water Group but these are the two major activities that need to stay on our radar. The Water Group is calling for feedback until July 15.

The Tree Rose

“A recent publication by scientists with the Botanical Survey of India has documented and stressed the need to protect the many unique varieties of Rhododendron - literary tree rose in Greek - found in the region with 18 species endemic to India” (The Hindu - 2 · 11.6.17, p. 12).

Around the Auroville’s Nature Camp, not far from Kodai, there are the farms and the Australian’s trees - Acacia (wattle) and Eucalyptus. The camp is situated on 1800m above sea level. But not so far from the camp, at 2000m, there are sholas - the ecosystems which is the richest in indigenous species of plants and animals.

Once the children walked from the camp to the shola and shouted: “Hibiscus!” Really what they saw are the red flowers of Rhododendron arborescens. Hibiscus is an Auroville’s symbol but it is absent near the camp. According to the Mother, the Rhododendron’s spiritual name is “Abondance de beaute” (Abundance of beauty). I didn’t see any kind of Rhododendron in Auroville. Rhododendron arborescens in the sholas is the big bush or small tree. Its red flowers are very beautiful. Not far from Rhododendron arborescens can be seen the bright flowers of the white rose - according to the Mother, its spiritual name is “Amour Integral pour le Divine” (Integral love for the Divine). The white rose in the shola is the big bush.

I found very rare plants - tree fern, Cyathea giganthea - only 1 specimen, within 1 km from the camp. A long time ago the tree fern was common in the Kodai region. Maybe all these three species of the plants were in the past in the place of contemporary Auroville.

That’s all

In due course, we have succeeded to be merged, adjusted, and imposed the way of an ordinary life. It is a basis, a condition which formats everybody with the same statute, on the external life. Surely, we have first to recognize, that we should not pretend, and be able to wear the clothes of a humble citizen.

On the other hand shall we consider that we came in Auroville for a spiritual adventure? The next step has to come, and it seems the less we talk about it, the better it is, as it should not disturb anybody in his peaceful life, enjoying the day to day, with its ups and downs. Sri Aurobindo and the Mother, their books are there and if we feel it we can read them and meditate.

As a child’s dream, full of marvelous imaginations, questioning: is there a Life where all are like blooming flowers? They open to the sun, revealing their petals, colors, scent in beautiful shapes? If it does exist what would it be like if we could open ourselves like flowers, free from being separate, totally surrendered to the Sun, thinking as if everything was manifested like flowers.

Let’s dream and dream, as blooming is our destiny.

Love, Andre T.

CLASSES, WORKSHOPS

Workshop on Research Writing and Case Studies
22 & 23 September, 2017 (9 am to 5 pm on both days)
AuroStat offers a two-day workshop on researching issues related to Auroville, and writing effective case studies. This will be a hands-on workshop involving individual and group work, where participants can pick projects and topics of their choice, and learn how to structure their research, and communicate the findings in the form of case studies. This will allow for documentation of the project that will inform decision making, as well as increase awareness of the project on a national & global scale for funding. The next workshop will be held in January 2018 as a follow up of the first workshop, where authors can bring their (semi) finished work for completion.

Both workshops will be facilitated by Dr. Subhasis Ray, a long term associate of Auroville, working closely with several Units in Auroville. He is a Professor of Marketing at the Xavier Institute of Management, Bhubaneswar (XIMB), and has been an invited panelist/visiting faculty of sustainability & marketing in more than 15 countries. This includes the Harvard Business School and Yale University in the US, Hanken School of Economics (Finland), University of Stellenbosch (S. Africa), University of Queensland (Australia), United Nations University (Netherlands) & Korea University (S.Korea). In India, he has been a visiting faculty to IIM Kolkata and IIM Kashipur. He has received grants and scholarships from the European Union, Duke-NUS, DFID (UK), IDRC (Canada), IBM and the International Council of Mines and Minerals (ICMM).

The present workshop is funded by SdZ, and will be free of cost for Aurovilians. Seats are limited, and open only for those who are serious about research and will attend both days. To register, email: statistics@auroville.org.in or call 9843948288 for any queries.

<td>Shiatsu Massage</td>
<td>Shiatsu is a form of massage that originated in Japan and traditional Chinese medicine, and has been widely practised around the world since the 1970s. Shiatsu means “finger pressure,” which describes the technique. The theory behind shiatsu is that our bodies are made up of energy, called qi, and that energy gets blocked and causes suffering. Shiatsu massage helps remove the blockages by realigning meridian points, which balances the qi and eases the body and mind.</td>

The Cove
92 mins / English / 2009 / Directed by Louie Psihoyos
The Cove is a 2009 documentary film directed by Louie Psihoyos which analyzes and questions dolphin hunting practices in Japan. It was awarded the Academy Award for Best Documentary Feature in 2010. The film is a call to action to halt mass dolphin kills, change Japanese fishing practices, and to inform and educate the public about the risks, and increasing hazard, of mercury poisoning from dolphin meat. The film is told from an ocean conservationist’s point of view. The film highlights the fact that the number of dolphins killed in the Taiji dolphin drive hunting is several times greater than the number of whales killed in the Antarctic, and asserts that 23,000 dolphins and porpoises are killed in Japan every year by the country’s whaling industry. The migrating dolphins are herded into a cove where they are netted and killed by means of spears and knives over the side of small fishing boats. The film argues that dolphin hunting as practiced in Japan is unnecessary and cruel.

At the core, the film deals with a very relevant subject of how language divides our society. Mita and Raj Batra, an affluent couple from Delhi’s Chandni Chowk. They are grappling with getting their daughter admission into an English medium school. But there is one big problem.
