HOUSE OF MOTHER’S AGENDA

You see, to be free from all attachments doesn't mean to run away from opportunities for attachment. All those people who assert their asceticism not only run away, but warn others that they shouldn't try! It seems to me so obvious. When you need to run away from a thing in order not to experience it, it means you aren't above it, you are still on that level. All that eliminates and diminishes or lessens doesn't free. Freedom must be experienced in the totality of life and sensations.

In this connection, there has been a whole period of study of this subject, on the purely physical level.... To rise above all possibility of error, you tend to eliminate the opportunities for error; for instance, if you don't want to utter unnecessary words, you stop speaking. People who make a vow of silence imagine it gives a control over speech - that's not true! It only eliminates the opportunities to speak, and therefore of saying unnecessary things. For food, it's the same problem: how to eat only just what is needed?... In the transitional state we find ourselves in, we no longer want to live that wholly animal life based on material exchanges and food, but it would be folly to think we have reached the state in which the body can live on without any food at all (still, there is already a big difference, since they are trying to find the nutritional essence in foods in order to reduce their volume); but the natural tendency is fasting - which is a mistake!

For fear of acting wrongly, we stop doing anything; for fear of speaking wrongly, we stop saying anything; for fear of eating for the pleasure of eating, we stop eating anything - that's not freedom, it's simply reducing the manifestation to its minimum. And the natural outcome is Nirvana. But if the Lord wanted only Nirvana, there would be only Nirvana! He obviously conceives the coexistence of all opposites and that, to Him, must be the beginning of a totality. So, of course, you may, if you feel that you are meant for that, choose only one of His manifestations, is that to say, the absence of manifestation. But that's still a limitation. And it's not the only way of finding Him, far from it!

It's a very widespread tendency, which probably comes from an old suggestion, or perhaps from a poverty, an incapacity: to reduce and reduce - reduce one's needs, reduce one's activities, reduce one's words, reduce one's food, reduce one's active life, and it all becomes so cramped! In the aspiration not to make any mistakes, you eliminate the opportunities of making them - that's no cure. But the other path is far, far more difficult.

Yes, I am thinking, for instance, of those who live in the West, who live the Western life: they are constantly swamped with work, with appointments, with telephones... they don't have one minute to purify what constantly falls on them and to collect themselves. In those conditions, how can they be free men? How is it possible?

This is the other extreme. (silence)

No, the solution is to act from the divine impulse alone, to speak from the divine impulse alone, to eat from the divine impulse alone. That's what is difficult, because, naturally, you immediately confuse the divine impulse with your personal impulses! That was the idea, I think, of all the apostles of renunciation: eliminate all that comes from outside or from below, so that if something from above manifests, you will be in a fit state to receive it. But from the collective point of view, it's a process that may take thousands of years! From the individual point of view, it's possible; but then the aspiration to receive the true impulse should be kept intact - not the aspiration to total “liberation,” but the aspiration to the ACTIVE identification with the Supreme, in other words, to want only what He wants, to do only what He wants, to exist only through Him. So the method of renunciation may be tried, but it's a method for someone who wants to cut himself off from others. And can there be an integrity in that case?... It doesn't seem possible to me.

Announcing publicly what you intend to do helps considerably. It may give rise to objections, contempt, conflicts, but that's largely made up for by the public “expectation,” if we may say so: by what others expect from you. That was certainly the reason for those robes: to let people know. Obviously, you may incur the contempt and ill will of some people, but there are all those who feel, “I mustn't touch this, I mustn't have anything to do with it, it's not my concern.”

I don’t know why, it has always seemed to me to be showing off - it may not be that, and in certain cases it isn't, but still it's a way of telling people, “Ah! Here is what I am.” And as I said, it may help, but there are drawbacks. It's still childish. All those things are methods, stages on the way, but... true freedom is being free from everything - including from all methods.

MOTHER’S AGENDA, 16 September 1964

MOTHER

The Ponder Corner

Concentration upon oneself means decay and death.
Concentration on the Divine alone brings life and growth and realisation.
The Mother

Cover: The News&Notes becomes a MONDAY publication – Still delivered on Saturday but now covering the week ahead (Monday to Sunday)
The Forest Group was informed of a currently privately owned plot inside the larger Adventure forest. The Forest Group recommends the Land Board and the BCC to financially support an additional 0.9 acres that was asked for in the first place. The additional 0.9 acres should at the back of these 2 acres, thereby occupying a small part of the current underused Adventure sportsgrounds.

Northern Greenbelt
The Forest Group discussed pros and cons of placing checkposts in Northern Greenbelt. Checkposts may be discouraging people to unnecessarily use roads or paths. On the other hand: a checkpost may be misunderstood and seen as an unacceptable barrier to unrestricted right of way. The Forest Group encourages the stewards of the Northern Greenbelt to try to formulate a consensus on the issue and inform the Forest Group of that consensus.

Housing board
Yuval, the current Green Group representative in the Housing Board, informed the Forest Group of his desire to hand over this responsibility to another member. No member has yet responded to this request.

Next meeting
Next meeting of the Forest Group will be on Friday, July 6, 3pm, in Aurodam.

POSTINGS

Tailoring section at Freestore closed in June

Dear all, it is wonderful to receive such an amount of garments and other useful items from our community for exchange. But due to this generosity we need all our time to go through it and display everything in a nice and convenient way for all of us. This also means that our only tailor is overloaded with repair and alteration work, which is not easy to catch up with at the moment. That’s why we unfortunately have no other choice but to close our tailoring section for the months of May and June, and re-open at the beginning of July. We are sorry for the inconvenience and hope you will understand our situation.

Looking forward to see you at Freestore, and back at the tailoring section after summer.

Love, your Freestore Team

CASHEW SPRAYING AND HEALTH: You want a change? Please PARTICIPATE in the survey!

Dear friends,
The community-wide survey on Cashew spraying and Health is still on until Tuesday 19th June, and the more of us participate, the more meaningful the results will be.
If you haven't yet had a chance to complete the simple online survey, you can find it here (in English and Tamil versions).
Thank you for taking a few minutes to answer a few questions about if and how the spraying affected you and your family - for a healthier, safer future for all! Some detailed information on the chemicals sprayed and their effects on humans and the environment is accessible in the Rough Guide to the common pesticides used in Auroville.

We thank you for your solidarity in an area that concerns us all, and look forward to hearing from you!

Water Words: So many groups, so many acronyms

We are republishing this Water Words from last year, as this particular topic got a lot of positive feedback, and it’s always good to be refreshed. The topic: All of these Auroville “water groups” (and subsequent acronyms). Let’s get clear. There are three major entities in the area of water presently in Auroville: Auroville Water Service (AWS), Pour Tous Water (PTW), and the Water Group (WG). The AWS is located at the Elephant Towers, in a quaint little building with a painting of Father Water on it, streaming beard and all. This team takes care of distribution, or getting water to you. They know all about pipes and slopes and floor. Then there’s the PTW. They’re based at Albi, and are predominantly in charge of infrastructure maintenance. They know about bore wells and pumps, valves and plumbing works. And then there’s the WG, based at CSR, formed in September 2016 looking at the long-term water management strategy for Auroville, consulting on various water issues, and aiming to raise the water literacy of all of us. Do the three groups collaborate? We try, and things are getting better.

INVITATIONS

Sourcing Our Oneness Gathering
Nainital 23-30 September, 2018

Dear Aurovilians and New comers,

We invite you to participate in this year’s Sourcing Our Oneness gathering in Nainital that will take place 23-30 September 2018 with arrival on 23 September afternoon and departure on 30th of September.

This is an event bringing together participants from Auroville,
Auroville International, Sri Aurobindo Ashram, Sri Aurobindo
Ashram - Delhi Branch, Sri Aurobindo Society, The Golden Chain Fraternity, World Union, Sri Aurobindo’s Action, Sri Aurobindo
Centre for Advanced Research (SACAR), Sri Aurobindo Association USA, and other organizations and individuals related to the work of The Mother and Sri Aurobindo.

Through the Sourcing our Oneness events over these last three years, we explored the application of Integral Yoga in our lives at a collective level. In 2016, we saw that Sri Aurobindo’s Five Dreams motivate the work and approaches of all our organizations, uniting us in essence and action to work for the full manifestation of Sri Aurobindo and Mother’s work. This year, which is celebrating the 50th year of the Founding of Auroville, we will focus on the fifth dream: “The final dream was a step in evolution which would raise man to a higher and larger consciousness and begin the solution of the problems which have perplexed and vexed him since he first began to think and to dream of individual perfection and a perfect society.”
As always, we will work together, mingling youth of all ages in a playful and collaborative atmosphere. Offering all our faculties and talents to explore as well as build on the work done, we will take steps towards deepening understanding and collaborating at all levels to further this work for the fulfillment of the aims and ideals of Sri Aurobindo and The Mother.

Recently graduated from the Sri Aurobindo International Centre of Education, Pondicherry, the artists offer the findings of their explorations and experimentations in a condensed immersive experience that takes themselves and the audience together as travelers on a voyage. The journey traces five dreamers who, once asleep, wake in to a strange new light, and are transported to mysterious, curious, and joyous regions. They travel up, down, sideways, and under, and encounter their limitations, their strengths, and one another.
